“ To Rev. Dr. and Family,

I pray that God gives you the strength to get through this trying time. Vett will always be in my heart and I will miss her. I'll never forget her smile, her laugh, her sarcasm (she got that from you Rev. Dr.: -), or our wonderful time in Jamaica.

Rest in peace, Vett.

“ Wow this is so surreal to me. I met Yvette while working at JCI in 1997 and we have been best of friends since then. Although I moved from Detroit in 2000 Yvette and I continued to be friends and grew closer like sisters. Everytime I came back home to visit Yvette and I hung out. I was just home a few weeks ago and we hung out on Friday the 14th. And man did we have lots of fun. I then spoke to her on Saturday via voicemail and told her I would call her later the following week, and now she is gone. I am truly blessed to have gotten a chance to hang out with her and see her while I was home. God is awesome and I know that Yvette was a woman for God and she knew that God was real. I know she is in a better place smiling down on everyone that was apart of her life. I will miss her soooooo much! She was the sister I never had. She had such a impact on my life. To the family of my friend. My prayers are with you all and my God give you the strength to deal with lost of a loving, nurturing, kind daughter, aunt, godmother, and a true friend. God bless!

“ To Dr Morgan and family----
Yvette will be missed by us. She always had a wonderful and bright demeanor whenever she had the chance to visit with us. Our heartfelt sympathies go out to all who came in contact with her. May your wonderful memories always be a light. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. We love you and we are in prayer.

“ Yvette, September 23, 2007, you did not call me to say Happy Birthday as you have done for so many years in the past. Very early the next morning I found why. My heart refuses to accept your are gone. I keep hearing you laugh as clearly as if you were standing here. You were such a good friend to so many and your memory will live in us forever. Mr. and Rev. Morgan, thank you for allowing Yvette's fiends and co-workers to share in her homegoing. May you find peace and solice in life as I am sure she has in death.

“ To Yvette's parents and family.

We had the pleasure of meeting Yvette a few years ago at one of our many family gatherings. Yvette was blessed with the personality you wished all your friends could have. She never seemed down about anything. Yvette could join any conversation and keep it going without stealing your joy.

Yvette was like part of our family and tried never to miss an invite. It's really sad to have to face the fact that we will never see her smiling face at any future get togethers, but she will be remembered, always.

You've raised a beautiful daughter so be happy and proud of the time you had with her here on earth as we are.

May God continue to bless you all at this sorrowful time and always.

“ Yvette and I communicated on a regular basis. I still find it hard to believe that she is gone from sight. She will never be gone from the hearts of the people that loved her. Barbara, I am praying for you and your entire family.

I know that things seem impossible right now but knowing the Lord as I know that you do, you know that He will get you through this difficult time. I will be in contact with you soon and hope to see you in Shellbyville. Monique, remember what I told you and keep the faith.

“ A year later this still seems so unreal, I miss you like crazy. The kids are growing and your not here. You were a wonderful person. I can't even find the words to express how much I miss and need you here. We all do. I love You so much, you are still my sister. I can't wait for the chance to see you again...
