“ Thankful to have shared family time with Aunt Zelia. Her love and devotion to God will never be forgotten. Her love for her children and family is beyond words. We will all miss her. I am praying for you Crystal and Rondale and the rest of the family. God called a faithful servant from labor to reward. She is in the presence of Almighty God. He never makes a mistake. Cherish her by loving one another. Love and prayers. I will be out of the country this weekend. But I will be praying for you all.

“ Dear Family,
My prayers are with you all. Zelia and I were very close as we grew up together only a few houses apart. I will always cherish the memories of her humor and hospitality whenever I visited her home. Our last time together was one I will always remember. I love you Zelia, rest in peace.

Love,
Gail
One of the "three Musketeers."
